DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the sheet (claims 6 and 7) must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). Also, the "nets" (claim 4) appear to be stiff panels in the drawings. It is not clear how element 6 is a "net". No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

Art Unit: 3611

2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: element 7 is referred to as both supporting structures and vertical supports.

Appropriate correction is required.

3. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) THE NAMES OF THE PARTIES TO A JOINT RESEARCH AGREEMENT.
- (e) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC.
- (f) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
  - (1) Field of the Invention.
  - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (g) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (h) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (i) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (j) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (l) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

Claim Objections

Art Unit: 3611

4. Claims 1-7 are objected to because of the following informalities: the claims are replete with grammatical and typographical errors. Many elements are recited in the claims with improper (or no) use of "a" or "the" or "said". Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

7. In claim 1 "the snow cover" lacks antecedent basis. It is not clear if the snow is actually part of Applicant's invention. In line 3 "a frame portion" is recited, however a frame portion is previously recited in line 2. It cannot be determined from the claim, as written, how many profiles and portions are intended to be claimed.

8. In claim 2 "the framework" and "the under side of snow cover" lack antecedent basis. Also, "an upper profile" is recited and it is not clear if this is the same as the profile of claim 1.

9. In claim 5 "the framework" lacks antecedent basis.

10. In claim 7 "the sheet" lacks antecedent basis. Also, use of the term "etc." in the claims is considered to be indefinite. It is not clear what the sheet is made from when such a term is used.

11. Applicant is encouraged to review the claims and make corrections.

12. The remaining claims are rejected as depending from a rejected base claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

13. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

14. Claims 1, 3, 4, 6 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rusin, US #2,010,404.

15. Rusin discloses an advertising stand (Figure 1) including a frame having upper profile 22 and lower profile 20 formed of bent metal with sheet 18 therebetween and advertising surfaces 16 affixed thereto. Foot portion 14 supports the stand. If used in the snow, the foot portion and the lower profile may be placed under the level of the snow.

16. Regarding claim 4, “nets” 18 provide grooves for the advertising surfaces.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

17. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

18. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rusin.

19. Rusin does not teach using steel to form the profiles, however, steel is well known in the art of sign frames. Rusin teaches that other materials could be used

(column 4 lines 7-8). It would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to utilize steel for the profiles since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.

20. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rusin in view of Lush, US #2,010,404.

21. Rusin does not teach additional supports, however this is well known, as shown by Lush. Lush teaches an advertising stand including additional supports 17. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to utilize additional supports to prevent the display from falling over.

Conclusion

22. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. US patents 1887894 and 3969838 are cited as of interest.
